HARGIS CEMETERY - this cemetery was so overgrown no one was ever able to get in to list stones, if they still exist. The 1964 listing of CIVIL WAR VETERANS BURIED IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY (as published by San Antonio Geneo. Society), listed in VOLUME II, beginning p. 366, lists this cemetery as MOORE CEMETERY, with 3 CSA Vets;

WILLIAMSON COUNTY CEMETERIES

Volume I of this collection was made 1973-1975 by the Williamson County Historical Survey Committee. A second volume of other area cemeteries is now being compiled. Several cemeteries in counties adjoining Williamson, and near the boundary lines, are also included, for the convenience of researchers.

Historical Committee members during the time this volume was compiled are as follows:

Mrs. Don Scarbrough (Georgetown), chairman; Ruth Mantor (Taylor), vice chairman; Mrs. Estha Scoggins (Georgetown), secretary-treasurer; Myreta Matthews (Liberty Hill), publicity; also Mrs. Bob Ford, Mrs. Stanley Schwertner of Bartlett; Effie McLeod and Mrs. Jinx Goff, Florence; Laverne Faubion, Mrs. Leroy Johnson, Mrs. Homer Caswell, Mrs. Robert Morse, Mrs. Carl Burnette, Dr. and Mrs. Van Tipton, Mrs. J.T. Atkin, Donald Irvine, Mrs. Sally Pettus, Judge Sam Stone, Judge and Mrs. Luther Chance, Gene Hargett, all of Georgetown; Mrs. Henry Labaj, Granger; Mr. and Mrs. Emery Blackman, Hutto; Miss Cora Sexton, Mrs. Fred Buchanan, Jarrell; Mrs. Marshall Richardson, Harold Asher, Liberty Hill; Mrs. J. W. Ledbetter, Mrs. D. B. Gregg, Round Rock; A. M. Ahlgreen, Thomas McDonald, Mrs. Joe Hannah Forson, Ranken Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Mahon Garry, all of Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ribbeck, Thrall.

Many of the older cemeteries have been called various names through the years. The Commission has attempted to list all alternate names, the earlier one being placed first.

In all probability there has been some misreading of names or dates, in spite of great care taken by researchers, and a few obvious typographical inaccuracies (such as the exchanging of birth and death dates) appear in this collection. Since these cannot be rechecked immediately, the compiler's listing stands. If the reader can offer positive corrections which can be substantiated, he should report them to the librarian, who can properly make the correction, allowing the original version to remain visible.

Texas law prohibits the defacing or destruction of any and all Texas cemeteries/burial places, or any part of one, even on private property. Information about damage to cemeteries should be reported promptly to law enforcement officers.

This volume was prepared with the assistance of many individuals, cemetery associations, and entire communities, to whom the Williamson County Historical Commission is extremely grateful.

ALLISON-FRIENDSHIP CEMETERY

ANDERSON FAMILY CEMETERY

This small cemetery was on the home place of Uriah H. Anderson at the community of Rock House. U. H. Anderson himself (1810-1893) was buried there, but grandchildren had the body moved in 1966 or 1967 to the Liberty Hill Cemetery, since Rock House area was to be covered by water from a lake to be formed on the North Gabriel River. The cemetery is on a creek bank.

List prepared by Myreta Matthews, Liberty Hill, February 1974.

U. H. Anderson	1810-1893	(moved to Liberty Hill)
Mrs. T. L. (Biddie) Dycus		Mother of Mrs. O. O. Perry Grandmother of Floyd Perry, Liberty Hill
Gus Dycus		Father of W. T. Dycus of Liberty Hill

ANDICE CEMETERY

The Andice Cemetery was first known as Pilot Knob Cemetery. The cemetery was located at the junction of four corners, which brought about four donors as follows: B. W. STAPP, W. J. WILLIAMS, a Mr. DAVIS, and a MR. PEEL. In 1957 Mrs. JENNY FAULKNER and Mr. W. K. TOMLINSON together gave about one acre to enlarge the cemetery.

The oldest grave with a marker is that of FANNIE, daughter of ROBERT and SUSANA LOVE, 1849 - 1857.

In 1956 the Andice Cemetery Association was organized. The cemetery is located two tenths miles West of Andice on Farm road 970.

BEARD CEMETERY

February 1975

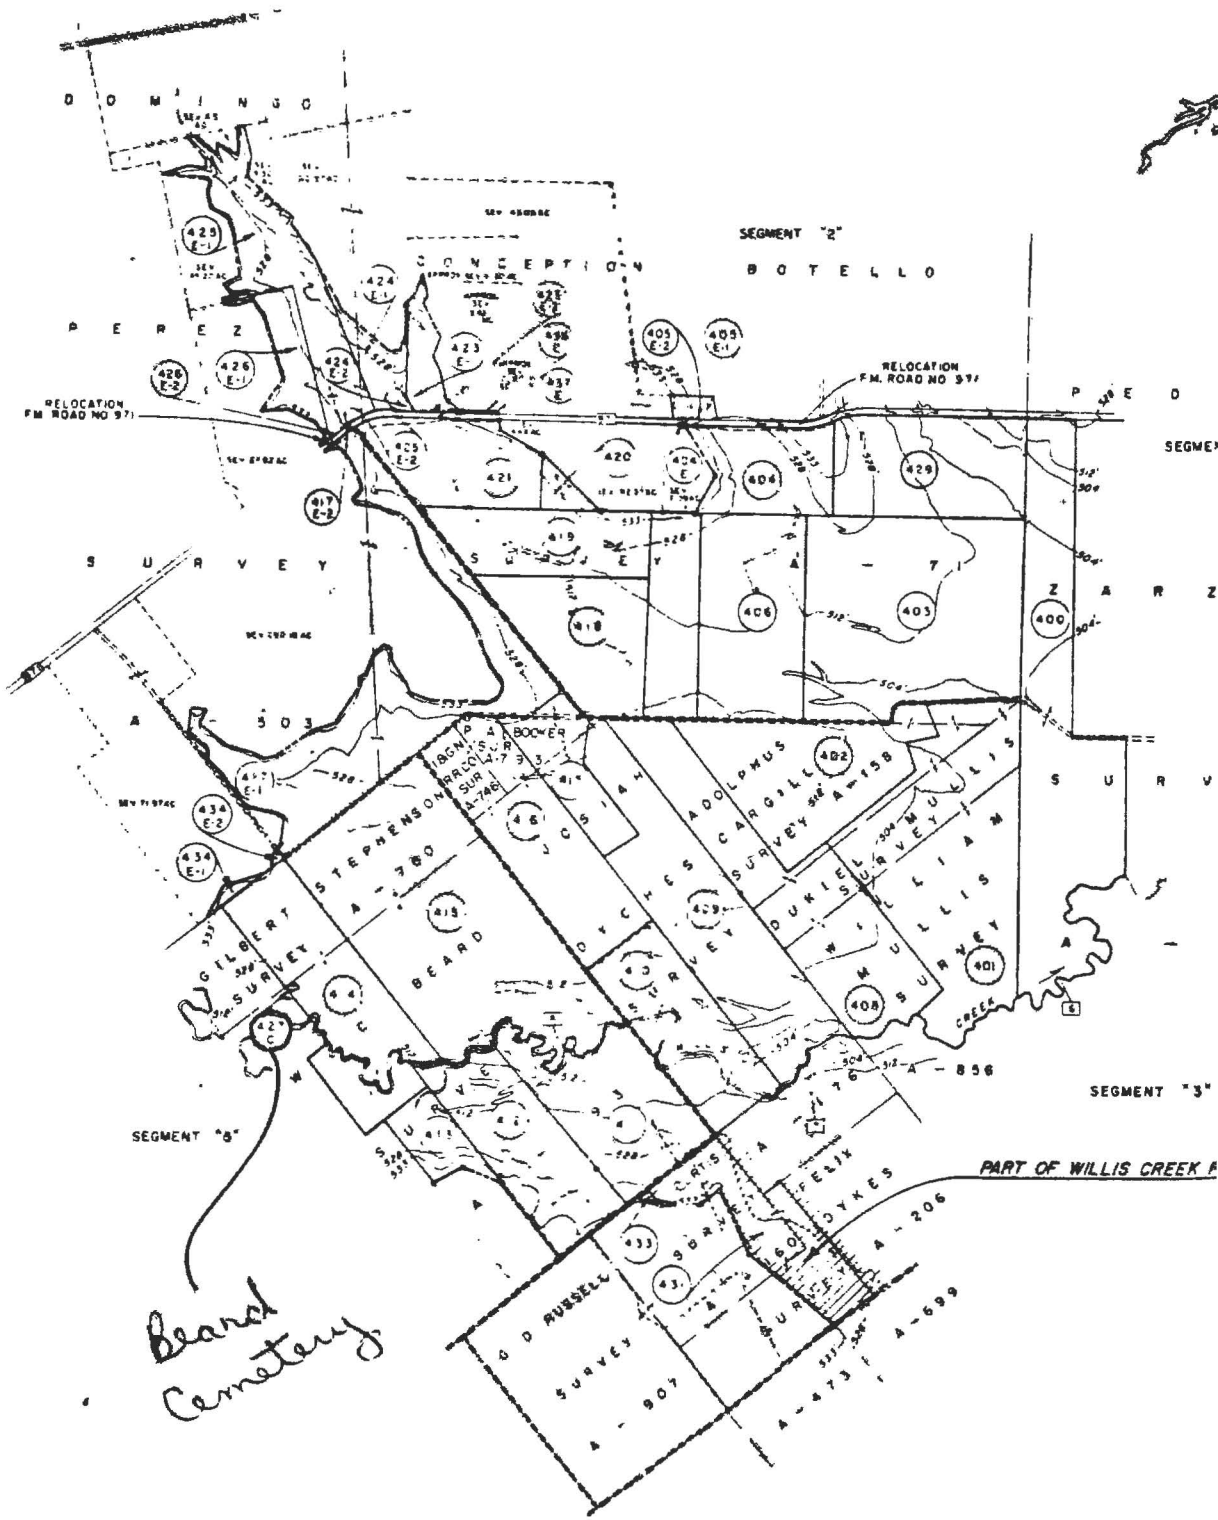

Because of its location near the Laneport Dam, this cemetery was abandoned and those buried therein were relocated in a Cemetery one mile east of Granger, and just south of the Granger Brethren Cemetery, by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The following burials were found by the U. S. Corps of Engineers, not on the original list submitted to the Williamson County Historical Committee earlier:

William Beard--no marker. Known to be 25 or 30 years old at death.

Johnny Beard--no marker. Died at age 3.

Mary, infant daughter of M. L. & C. P. Beard.

A pile of stones covered a grave on top of the ground, necessitated by an unusually late severe cold spell of weather which froze the ground, for three men massacred by Indians near Salado Creek west of present Jarrell.

Details of the event can be found in Land of Good Water by Clara Stearns Scarbrough, page 106.

Burials were:

- Dr. Thomas Kenney, massacred a few days after April 6, 1844.
- Henry Castleberry, massacred a few days after April 6, 1844.
- John Courtney, massacred a few days after April 6, 1844.

BRATTON CEMETERY

In 1837, Captain Nelson Merrill, a Texas Ranger, founded the community of Merrilltown. He operated the Merrilltown post office, a stagecoach "stop," also a country store, on the old upper Georgetown road, now known as F. M. Road 1325. Captain Merrill's land was located along this highway in Travis and Williamson counties.

In 1856, Captain Merrill gave some four or five acres from the land on which he lived to the trustees of the Merrilltown School District and their successors, for a school, church, and cemetery, forever. The church and cemetery were never to interfere with the land being used for a school.

It was during this period or a few years later that members of the Robert and Nancy McCluskey Bratton family came to the Merrilltown settlement, settling on land on the north and east side of the community. Ancestors of Robert Bratton had emigrated from Ireland to Virginia, to Kentucky and from there Robert Bratton had moved to Indiana. The sons and daughters of Robert Bratton who came to the Merrilltown community were:

Name	Married to
John Bratton	Jane Lane, 1834
{ George Bratton	Amanda Walker, 1847
{ William Bratton	Amanda Walker, 1852
Elizabeth H. Bratton	Capt. Louis, 1843
Robert C. Bratton, Jr.	Ellen M. Gault, 1858
Nancy Eunice Bratton	Jame Robers, 1852
Anna Solemnia Bratton	Francis A. Robey, 1853

In his will dated October 9, 1855, John Bratton set aside one acre, more or less, of land for a burying ground in which he stated "I never want sold." However, this was not made in the form of a deed. On April 9, 1885, Michael Studer and his wife Rachel Studer, who had purchased the land on which the cemetery was located, and known as the Bratton Cemetery, executed a deed giving the land to the community "for and in consideration of the love we hold for the community," forever, naming as trustees F. A. Robey, Byram Sherman and J. A. Bratton and their successors.

CORN HILL CEMETERY

Corn Hill Cemetery is located one mile south of Jarrell, where once the thriving town of Corn Hill stood. This list was compiled by the Corn Hill Cemetery Association, organized 1953, and provided to the Historical Committee by Miss Cora Sexton and Mrs. Fred Buchanan, May 1975.

Records of the U. S. Postal Department, of the Williamson County Deeds, meetings of the Commissioners Court, and other records, including those of Corn Hill Academy and Corn Hill College, adhere to the name as written above: Corn Hill, as two words. In recent years, the name is frequently spelled as one word, but this is believed to be a variant not much used when that town was in existence.

The Corn Hill Cemetery List in volumes furnished Williamson County Libraries in Bartlett, Georgetown, Round Rock, Taylor; and to the Genealogy Division of the Texas State Library gives the Cemetery Ass'n Record Book page number, the Cemetery Section, Row, Lot & Grave numbers.

This list has been retyped for Xerox purposes by L. Faubion, member of the Williamson County Historical Commission.

STATE OF TEXAS
HERE SLEEP
THE VICTIMS OF THE
WEBSTER MASSACRE
OF AUGUST 27, 1839

About thirty homeseekers headed by John Webster, en-route to what is now Burnet County, were attacked by a band of Comanche Indians. After attempting to flee under cover of darkness, they were trapped in this vicinity. Mrs. Webster and her two children were captured and later released. All the others were killed. Martha Webster then but three years old was later married to Marmaduke Strickland.

The State of Texas erected this marker in 1936

DAVIS CEMETERY, Williamson County, Texas

Since the marker to the victims of the Webster Massacre was erected, further research reveals the following information:

The massacre apparently took place June 20, 1839, instead of the date on the marker.

There were apparently seventeen in the party, led by John Webster, who were travelling to his acreage in present Burnet County, when they were attacked by the Comanches. Mrs. Webster and her two children, Martha Virginia, age 3, and Booker, age 13, were taken prisoner. The others, fourteen men, were killed. They were:

Fisk-Cashion

One marked grave stone reads-

SACRED

MEMORY

MARY A. FISK

Born in the year A.D. 1818

Died A.D. 1848

There are 14 unmarked graves except for heavy deeply sunk native rocks but definitely graves by the positions as at the head and foot of a burial place.

This cemetery is near the South San Gabriel River on the north side due south of the Union Hall church. It is in a densely over grown spot on a ravine and can be reached only by crossing a plowed field.

The property is owned now by F.F. Davis and his wife who cared for Tom J. Cashion, Jr, whose mother was a daughter of Greenleaf and Mary A. (Manlove) Fisk. Mr. Cashion died a few years ago, in his late 90's.

He knew one infant grave was that of his infant sister and one was a 14 year old girl who died of a snake bite.

A log house once stood in the center of this field long since burned.

On Nov. 13, 1974, Mary Harper Stone (Mrs. J. N.), 907 Pine, Georgetown, granddaughter of Dr. G. S. C. Harper, gave the following additional information:

Dr. Harper's full name was George Smither Coleman Harper. He was one of Georgetown's pioneer doctors. His son, Samuel George Harper, also became a doctor and practiced in Georgetown. He is buried in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

Mrs. Stone also stated that a Mr. Roman, who worked for Mrs. Harper, is buried in the family cemetery, but has no stone marker.

In addition, she believes that a Negro slave who was brought to Georgetown by the Price family is also buried there. She did not know his name.

There are several graves whose stones have fallen into sunken graves. Some stones were so weathered that no inscription was visible. The cemetery is probably 30 feet square and is enclosed within a stone wall of large hewn limestone rock. It is said that several slaves are buried there and they may have furnished the labor.

The wall is down in several places and the inside is very densely covered with vines, Ground Myrtle, and bushes.

KENNEY FORT

No markers are placed by the two graves at this site.
The burials are:

Wm. A. Force, d. August 11, 1841, at Kenney Fort. He was a surveyor, passing through the area, became ill and stayed at the Fort where Dr. Thomas Kenney tended him. He was recovering, but unknown to the doctor, ate some rich bear meat brought in by Captain Nelson Merrell, and died soon after. He was buried on the hillside across Dyer Branch, just east of the fort. (See Land of Good Water by Clara Stearns Scarbrough, pages 84-85.)

Mrs. Mary Jane Kenney, wife of Dr. Thomas Kenney, d. at Kenney Fort on December 12, 1841. She was buried near a cedar tree which served as a headstone, across Dyer Branch from the Fort, and adjacent to the grave of Wm. A. Force.

WEATHERED GRAVE STONES SHOW USAGE OF THIS SPOT FOR BURIALS SINCE 1852, WHEN THE EARLIEST SETTLERS WERE ESTABLISHING HOMES IN THE AREA. THE FIRST FORMAL GRANT OF LAND HERE AS A COMMUNITY BURIAL GROUND WAS MADE BY JOHN T. MACHU CEMETERY

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers relocated this cemetery because the original site was subject to flood from Laneport Dam. This project was undertaken in the early 1970s. With the exception of ten persons who were moved to places designated on a subsequent page, all burials were relocated in a cemetery one mile east of Granger, south of the Granger Brethren Cemetery.

In addition to names of burials in Machu Cemetery provided the Williamson County Historical Committee, the following have been added as a result of the research of the Army Engineers. Bracketed alternate information, or other changes so indicated, is also furnished by the Corps.

MILEHAM, or OLD JONAH CEMETERY

This small, early cemetery has been entirely destroyed. Cultivation and time have covered, at least, all the markers.

This area was located on a small hill west of Mileham Branch, a short distance north of Highway 29, just north of Jonah.

A strong fence surrounds this cemetery of one or two acre. There are scores of grave marked by heavy stones at the head and foot. No inscriptions are on these native stone markers but they were well mounded and clean of weeds and grass, said to have been cleaned on Good Friday, an annual custom.

The above count was made by Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Wells and Myreta Matthews on May 8, 1974

This is a well-kept cemetery still in use with possibly some graves unmarked and undetectable. The earliest marked grave was that of Lucy LeSueur who died July 28, 1876 at the age of 3 yrs. 9 mo. and 25 D's. However there were:

- 2 graves unmarked except with flowers
- 1 fieldstone marked grave
- 1 cement covered space, apparently a child's grave
- 1 marked only by a CSA marker
- 1 metal marker with name gone
- 5 slate stones with faces eroded.
- 3 broken stones with no information to be found.
- An iron-fenced lot with large stone overturned face down.
- Other unmarked graves noted under SPARKS.
- A number of graves listed by name, without dates.

The Cemetery was neglected for many years, and many markers are difficult to decipher, or are defaced or lost.

Above list is a composite of one compiled by Clara Stearns Scarbrough and another by Estha Scoggins, both of Georgetown.

Located one-fourth mile west of Norman's Crossing, west of Taylor,

SMALLEY CEMETERY

This is one of the very earliest cemeteries in the county, and in 1975 was in extremely bad condition.

To locate it, leave Round Rock on Highway 79 to the east; at FM Road 1460, turn left and travel 0.7 mile, to a gravel road on the right. The cemetery is several hundred feet to the right of this gravel road, along a fence row, now rather heavily grown up.

In 1960, Paul C. Wilson, Jr., P. O. Box 1374, Galveston, Texas 77551, visited the cemetery and listed the known burials. He included this information in his publication of 1965 entitled A Forgotten Mission to the Indians: William Smalley's Adventures Among the Delaware Indians of Ohio in 1792. (pp. 35, 50)

- (127) The Smalley Cemetery in Williamson Co., Tex., may be reached by going east out of Round Rock on U.S. Highway 79 to Farm Road 1460, thence left 0.7 mile to gravel road on right. The cemetery is located several hundred feet to the right of the gravel road, along a fence line. The property was rented by Mr. Emmitt Prinz, Route 3, Box 87A, Georgetown, Tex., as of 1960. The inscriptions are:

The initials "J. W." were on another stone.

*The initials "A. W. P." may be "M. W. P." I suspect that this is the grave of Moses W. Smalley.-P.C.W.

- (128) Esther (Smalley) Whistler's name is from A History of Texas Baptists, loc. cit., p. 27. I presume that she is the eldest child, aged 10-16, in the 1830 census of Clinton Co., Ohio. Mary (Smalley) Cox may be the Mrs. Mary Linzey, who was married to Rev. Thomas Washington Cox by Rev. Freeman Smalley, Senior in Fayette Co., Tex., on September 12, 1848 (Marriage Register A, pp. 194-195). Vermilion Co., Ill., Marriage Register A, p. 24, lists the marriage of Robinson Ross to Sabra Smalley on March 10, 1833, information furnished by Miss Mary Dea Carter. The approximate year of Sabra (Smalley) Ross' birth is from the 1850 census of Fayette Co., Tex. Williamson Co., Tex., Deed Book 5, pp. 198-200, deed dated February 10, 1854 from Freeman Smalley to his granddaughter, Rachel M. Ferguson. The 1850 census of Fayette Co., Tex., includes N. and Rachell Furgesson with the family of Robinson Ross. The information on Rev. James Knight Smalley was furnished by his grandson, Mr. Edwin Walker Smalley. The approximate period of Freeman Smalley, Junior's birth is from the 1840 census of Vermilion Co., Ill. The year of his death is from the records of his estate in Williamson Co., Tex. Vermilion Co., Ill., Marriage Register A, p. 106, lists the marriage of Aaron Rubel (i.e. Ruble) to Sarah E. Smalley on August 18, 1844, information furnished by Miss Mary Dea Carter. Sarah E. Smalley's birth and death dates are from the family bible of her son-in-law, John Taylor Bowman, in the hands of Mr. George K. Bowman, Senior, 122 Salisbury Drive, San Antonio, Tex. Census records indicate she was born about 1825 instead of 1827. The approximate year

Wayne K. Smith is a great-grandson of Taylor Smith and he says there are several more graves unmarked without even a rough field rock. One of those known to be buried here is a negro slave of Taylor Smith named HAM. Also a Negro slave mother and her twin infants.

This cemetery is in the little triangle, recently cleared acre back of the Triangle Texaco Station on HWY 29 and FM 1869. It was once part of the Dennis place. (2-10-74)

Wayne also says Goats family members are buried here - all were here prior to Civil War - Smiths, Colliers and Goats were all "in-laws"; but he didn't know how.

The graves are marked but the stones are falling and no fence protects them from the cattle in the pasture.

They are located just up the hill from the North San Gabriel on the south side and a short distance west from US 183 and the big bridge.

Property is now owned by Austin men, one of whom is named Risley. He is connected with the School for the Blind.

(It is said to be the old Law place.)

Names and dates furnished by Mrs. Kenneth Mogonye on April 7, 1975. She lives on an adjoining place.

STEARNS FAMILY CEMETERY

Small, early cemetery located on the farm purchased by Luther Stearns, Sr., April 25, 1850. Located between Circleville and Jonah, south of Hwy. 29 on Jim Byers farm (1975), 2.3 mi. east of Mileham Creek bridge at Jonah or 4.4 mi. west of Hwys. 95 and 29 intersection at Circleville. The graves are about 150 yards south of the highway, and were west of the store and a half log home which stood on a rise in the land. Burial plot in the lower flat a short distance west of the rise, and west or southwest of a tree growing there in 1975. The graves were marked with stones and enclosed by a fence until sometime after about 1920, after which fence and stones disappeared.

Luther Stearns, Sr., is known to be buried in the plot. There were several other burials there, probably three of his children who came with him to Texas in 1848.

Known burial:

LUTHER STEARNS, SR.

- b. Nov. 6, 1784, Chesterfield, Hampshire Co., Mass., to Texas from Vermilion Co., Ill., 1848, with wagon train; his second wife, Martha (Thomas) Stearns died in Arkansas en route, was buried in Arkansas.
- d. Jan. 26, 1859, buried near his homestead.

Probable burials:

OLIVE STEARNS, wife of John W. King (daughter Luther Stearns, Sr.)

- b. June 15, 1821, Ohio.
- d. July 14, 1850 at Luther Stearns, Sr., home.

JOHN STEARNS

(son of Luther Stearns, Sr.)

- b. Nov. 9, 1830, Ohio
- d. 1853, Williamson Co., Texas; unmarried

DAVID STEARNS

(son of Luther Stearns, Sr.)

- b. June 30, 1834, Illinois
- d. Feb. 26, 1860, in Texas; unmarried

At some time after the Swedish Methodist-Episcopal Brushy Church moved to Georgetown in 1902 and became known as St. Johns Methodist Church, this cemetery was abandoned by the Church Conference and eventually became an untended, overgrown cemetery. At present it is being maintained by local Georgetown citizens and is a well-kept, clearly marked burial ground.

There were: 4 graves with unreadable metal markers
1 grave marked only with flowers
1 fieldstone marked grave
3 graves curbed with fieldstones

Taylor City Cemetery

Listing of burials is available in the offices of the City of Taylor.

This cemetery is located on Union Hill approximately 3.8 miles south of Georgetown at a crossroad on the east side of the Old Round Rock Road (F.M. 1460). Except for a small corner, it is unkept and overgrown with weeds, vines, ground cover and trees. Some stones have been overturned and broken by growing trees. Without doubt many graves are hidden under the ground cover.

According to Mrs. Clara Stearns Scarbrough in LAND OF GOOD WATER, this cemetery was established near "a school referred to by area residents as Union Hill, but officially called Robertson School" where Lutheran church services were held after numerous Swedish families settled nearby. The earliest date found was on a tombstone broken in such a manner the full name could not be determined:

Historical Record
3-22-1994

Wesley Chapel Cemetery was started about 1893. The Wesley Chapel Methodist Church was built at this time. There being four farms cornering at this point O. Mr. Meredith and Mr. W. G. Custard being on the west of the present highway and a Mrs. Green and Mr. W. B. Conaway being on the east side. Mr. Meredith, Mr. Custard, and Mr. Conaway all donated one acre each for the church grounds with Mr. Conaway also giving an acre for the cemetery and then when the church finally disbanded nearly fifty years later the acre that Mr. Conaway had given ^{to the church} was transferred to the Cemetery thereby making about two acres.

We organized the Wesley Chapel Cemetery Association about fifteen years ago and finance it thru free will offerings. We have kept it in good condition and have accumulated a permanent fund that the interest will just about pay the upkeep. We hope to have it on a permanent basis in the near future.

If there should be any other information needed Ross Butler or I will try to cooperate.

Yours very truly
J. E. M. Master, Jr. Pres.

Dear Fay:

At long last I am enclosing copy of the deed to the Whitehead Cemetery together with the list of those who have been buried there. I do not know why I dilly-dally about doing things, but I suppose that it is because I am lazy.

I shall be happy for you to forward these items to the Historical Society on behalf of our family.

The cemetery was established when my Aunt Minnie died in 1877, but the deed is dated after my Grandmother's death in 1880.

My mother told me that Aunt Minnie had TB, and that she lived 3 months after having contacted the disease, and that she requested that she be buried under 2 large oak trees she could view from her window. It so happened that the land on which she was buried belonged to Mr. Bullington, hence the deed to $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land after my Grandmother's demise.

When we lost our little daughter, we buried her in Oakwood Cemetery here and so I placed my husband beside her and I will be buried with my family in Austin. Henry came back to us in April for his burial at the family cemetery as that was his wish. His wife was buried in Chicago with her family, but he loved the old home place and there he rests.

Thanks for having taken an interest in our behalf. I trust you and yours are well.
